REFORM RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

Without division last night the British House of Lords passed Lord Rosebery's resolutions for the reform of the Upper House, except the one dealing with tenure, which was withdrawn.

Lord Rosebery, in urging the adoption of the resolutions, said: "The time is short, my lords. You may have no further opportunity to discuss any resolutions affecting this House."

The waiving, however, was not decided. There was no serious opposition, while many speakers strongly supported the resolutions. Among these was Lord Curzon, who said: "We want to place this chamber on a democratic basis."

The gist of Lord Rosebery's resolutions is that the House in the future shall consist of lords of Parliament, comprising some chosen by all the hereditary peers from among themselves, some nominated by the Crown, others sitting by virtue of their offices, and still others chosen from outside.

The tenure resolution provided that the terms of all the lords of Parliament should be identical, with the exception of the ex officio members, whose membership should coincide with their tenure of office.

Premier Asquith having informed the suffragettes of his inability to give further time to the Conciliation bill this year, the militant suffragettes propose to force an entry into the House of Commons today and create trouble involving an embarrassing number of arrests.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

PAYING ELECTION BETS.

Headed by a brass band, Charles Chandonia, one of the best known republicans in South Bend, Ind., must take August Trimming, democrat, in a wheelbarrow through the business streets of South Bend Saturday. Trimming will smoke cigars while Chandonia must puff a cigar pipe. The spectacle will be the result of an election bet. About 20 years ago the two men made a similar bet and then conditions were reversed. Hundreds of friends of both men, not to mention strangers, will accompany them.

In the cold, gray dawn of the early morning—it was about the coldest morning this fall—John Gear, who thought that Henry L. Stimson would be elected governor of New York, took off his clothes, put on a bathing suit and jumped into the icy East river yesterday. With a rowboat following close behind he swam across the river to Randall's Island, carrying out the provisions of an election bet. A crowd watched and cheered his plucky performance.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

VIRGINIA AS A CORN STATE

The Department of Agriculture at Washington announces that Virginia leads all the other South Atlantic and Gulf States in the average yield of corn per acre.

The increase in the production of corn for the nine States is 158,294,000 bushels, which amounts to 45 per cent. of the total gain for the entire country.

In Virginia the average yield per acre for 1909 was 28.2 bushels, which has grown to 25.5 bushels in 1910. In ten years the average yield in this state has increased from 22.7 bushels.

The total crop in Virginia last year in bushels was 47,328,000, which has gone up to 54,621,000 bushels in 1910. This is a gain in one year of 7,293,000 bushels, or 15.4 per cent.

NUDE MAN FIGHTS IN CHURCH.

John Sweeney, sexton, found a nude man mummified to himself before the altar in the Church of the Holy Rosary, New York, Wednesday. When Sweeney approached to remove the man from the altar, the man awoke and the sexton to remove the fellow from his devotion to a hastily summoned ambulance. At the police station he said he was Jeremiah Tierney, forty-six years old, a laborer. A straight jacket had to be called into use to get him to the psychopathic ward in Bellevue Hospital.

Jackbird Sheen Woman.

Kenneth, Pa., Nov. 16.—Went probably will develop into a double murder took place at Auchey's Station, a hamlet two miles west of Auburn, yesterday evening, when James Mitchell, who was only recently discharged from the Pottsville jail, shot Mrs. J. H. Falls and her mother-in-law. The latter is dead and Mrs. Falls, who is the wife of a merchant, is dying.

Mitchell has escaped and is being pursued over the Blue Mountains by a mounted squad of state police.
